

Initiatives of Change
Nederland

Religions for Peace
Religies voor Vrede Nederland

INVITATION FAITH IN HUMAN RIGHTS @75

ONLINE INTERVIEW AND DIALOGUE WITH
PROF. DR. AZZA KARAM - RELIGIONS FOR PEACE
WEDNESDAY 2021, APRIL 28TH, 7.30 - 9.00 P.M.

What do human rights and religion have in common? On Wednesday 28 April lofC organizes in collaboration with Religions for Peace (RfP) an interview and dialogue on this question with professor Azza Karam. Karam is secretary general of the international organisation RfP. On behalf of RfP, she recently received the Four Freedoms Award for the organisation's building trust, dialogue and consensus among the religions. Karam is professor of Religion and Sustainability at the Free University, Amsterdam, The Netherlands of which she is a citizen. Karam has working for different United Nations organisations. Her experience spans from human rights and multireligious cooperation to gender and sustainable development. This is a E-meeting in the light of the lofC-project 'Faith in Human Rights @75'. After registration you will receive the link. Please click here to register.

Wat hebben mensenrechten en religie met elkaar te maken? Op woensdag 28 april organiseert lofC in samenwerking met Religions for Peace (RfP) hierover een interview en dialoog met professor Azza Karam. Karam is secretaris generaal van de internationale organisatie RfP. Namens deze organisatie ontving Karam op 31 maart de Four Freedoms Award uitgereikt vanwege het bruggen van vertrouwen bouwen tussen religieuze groepen. Karam is professor Religion and Sustainable Development aan de Vrije Universiteit, in Amsterdam. Zij was daarvoor werkzaam bij verschillende organisaties van de VN. Haar ervaring reikt van mensenrechten en multireligieuze samenwerking tot gender en duurzame ontwikkeling. Dit is een E-meeting in het kader van het lofC-project 'Geloven in mensenrechten @75'. s.v.p. klik hier om te registreren. Na registratie krijg je de link toegezonden.

VIA ZOOM - FREE OF CHARGE
ANY DONATIONS WILL BE GRATEFULLY ACCEPTED
THE LANGUAGE DURING THIS EVENT IS ENGLISH
WWW.IOFC.NL/FAITH-HUMAN-RIGHTS